From the Principal ...

Why choose Christian Education?

I have had the wonderful opportunity over the past few weeks to interview many families who will be joining TCS this fall. One of the questions I ask each new family is "why are you choosing Christian Education?". It gives me incredible insight into why a family is joining the TCS community. The answers are always unique to each family and often circle around:

- Wanting to be in an environment where Christian values drive the vision
- Being taught by teachers who have a passion and heart for a Christian worldview
- To connect with friends and other families who have the same values
- To equip a child to always know which way to turn when they are older so they will know the truth at all times

These are all great reasons to enroll your children into a Christian school and I affirm each reason each family gives me. Another powerful reason, which really includes all of the above, is to 'place your children in an environment where we are constantly inviting the Holy Spirit to work in the hearts of children'.

That may include a staff that starts and ends the week asking God to fill us with wisdom and equip students with Biblical truths. Or a board that meets each month and starts the meetings by asking God to grant us wisdom to make wise and careful decisions to run our organization in a Godly way. Or a teacher who sits down at his/her desk at 7:45 on a Monday morning and prays "Father, strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow...give these students and this teacher the wisdom to seek you in all things today!"

We, as a Christian community, reach out to our heavenly Father daily...at times hourly...asking for the Holy Spirit to fill us and fill the hearts of the students who walk these hallways.

There are a lot of great reasons to have your children in a Christian school. One of the best is putting our students in an environment where the Holy Spirit is called upon on a regular basis to do great work!

It kind of reminds me of Philippians 1:6:

"Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day Christ Jesus"
