Why is there no school on Friday and Monday?

It is interesting and sad how society responds to the Easter weekend. In some circles of society the weekend is referred to as a 'Family weekend'. I want to encourage parents not to drop the importance of this upcoming weekend to 'family weekend' status in your household.

Good Friday...is a day intended to deeply and profoundly reflect on the suffering that Jesus received for us on the cross. In her monologue last week at chapel, Jodi reminded us directly and painfully that Jesus took OUR place on the cross. That is why the Good Friday services are usually very reserved and somber. Because we reflect on the pain and suffering that had to be taken on our behalf.

Easter Monday...is the day we celebrate Jesus rising from the grave, conquering sin and death, and paving the way for us to find salvation. The Father reached over that gap of sin and pulled us toward Him through the cross. A day to celebrate the victory over sin.

It is not simply a 'family weekend'...it is the event that changed the world...that changed EVERYTHING...all in the phrase..."It is finished!"

Blessings as you prepare your hearts for this weekend.

Invitations coming soon for Grandparents Day on Friday, April 27th.

A reminder that our annual Grandparents Day will be held on Friday, April 27th. Please let your Grandparents know that a special invitation will be coming home before the Easter weekend so that students can deliver or email an invitation to their grandparents for this very special event.
